you, as I did before, that those who live like this will not inherit the kingdom of God.

The work of these demons to sexualize children is to create a heritage of the sin of the flesh. Children don't know any better, so re-writing the bible, and giving babies sex partners of any age at all, creates a heritage of sin against God. Children would not know to repent against sins of the flesh because it's just the way they have always lived. "Do as thou wilt" is the phrase of Satan. The

THIS, this abomination goes beyond the pale.

Remember when we were kids and we started seeing pictures of missing kids on milk cartons? That was the beginning of monetizing the evil that has been in hiding right in front of us. Eight hundred thousand kids go missing in the US every year. These kids don't just disappear. They are the product of big, big business.

In the Old Testament, we learn that Moloch and Baal wanted children because it's a higher form of blasphemy to God. When the soulless look at a child, they take pleasure in pure and utter destruction. If they can show their true evil nature to a child, all the better. The satanists have rituals they call "The Satanic Revels." In these rituals they choose young children, the younger the better. They never kill the child right away. They prolong the torture to raise the satanic energies and

The war we face is the war for the soul. The current agenda used by the LGBTQ (Innop)+ societies intend to sexualize children and even infants at a very early age. Their attempts to groom all children by providing them with sex partners (pedophilia) is a direct abomination to the bible.

Remember when Donald Trump was the darling of Hollywood, late night television, politicians, and the ultra-rich? THEY ADORED HIM... right up until he became the guy fighting child sex trafficking. Why? Because HE threatened their fountain of youth. Adrenochrome is that miracle drug that keeps Hollywood fresh as a daisy.

The internet is fraught with photos just like the ones above from the pedophile nation the has sold their soul for fame and money. The one eye symbol says they are willing to turn a "blind eye" to the atrocities they have witnessed (committed) in order to secure a prosperous and sustained career.

WE have a divine responsibility to protect ALL children, born and unborn.

In keeping children safe from this the evil debauchery that IS the LGBTQ+ movement and allowing kids to be kids, we contribute to the life God wanted us to give our children. Creating an atmosphere of curiosity, laughter, peace, and safety for our kids and neighbors is what we are called to do.

Detransitioned Teen Girl Sues Kaiser Permanente Over Gender Transition Gone Wrong

By Elizabeth Dowell 3/27/2023 Updated: 3/27/2023

A detransitioned teen is suing Kaiser Permanente hospital because doctors removed her breasts during her transgender procedure.

Layla Jane is an 18-year-old woman who began to identify as transgender at age 11. Jane, at the time, wanted to transition to a male. Initially, doctors at Kaiser denied her any transition hormones, saying she could take them after turning 16. However, doctors changed their minds, approved her request, and performed a double mastectomy when she was 13.

Jane wrote on Twitter, "Mind boggling to me that a doctor signed off on a double mastectomy for me before I took a sex ed course. I barely started 8th grade, I was 13."

In the letter of intent to sue (pdf), her attorneys at LiMandri and Jonna LLP accused the doctors of approving the breast-removal surgery "without performing an adequate evaluation and treatment of Layla's extensive mental health comorbidities."

According to the letter, Jane suffers from anxiety, depression, pubertal struggles, body dysmorphia, and serious self-image concerns.

"These doctors also pushed Layla and her parents down this transition path engaging in intentional, malicious, and oppressive concealment of important information and false representations," the letter states.

The lawsuit demands unspecified amounts of pay for damages related to her health issues during her transition period from ages 12 to 17. The case listed Jane as suffering from permanent, irreversible mutilation, an induced state of endocrine disease, an increased risk of being infertile, and the fact that she would never be able to breastfeed a child.

During an appearance on Fox News with her attorney, Harmeet Dhillon, Jane said,

Paul Fleuret (Absolute1776)

"I don't think I'm better off for the experience, and I think transition just completely added fuel to the fire that was my pre-existing conditions."

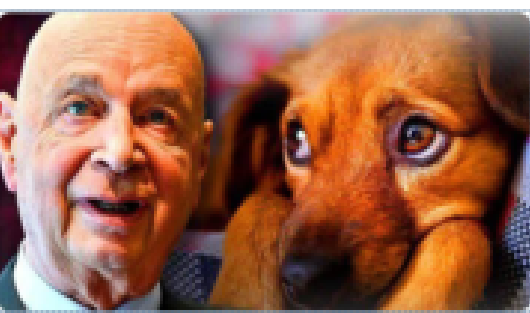

In a statement to DailyMail, Kaiser said that its doctors "practice compassionate, evidence-based medicine founded on sound research and best medical practices."

"When adolescent patients, with parental support, seek gender-affirming care, the patient's care team carefully evaluates their treatment options," Kaiser spokesman Marc Brown said. "The care decisions always rest with the patient and their parents, and, in every case, we respect the patients and their families' informed decisions about their personal health."

"I'm afraid that my generation and the generation, the generations following mine, are going to be led astray down the same path that I was on. It is not loving to lie to a child. It is not loving to disrupt a child's healthy natural development. Or to encourage them to do so," she said during an interview. "I stayed quiet about it for a little while But at the same time, I was also speaking to other people who ... regretted their transitions and people who ... were harmed medically."

Durham reports shows Biden and Obama knew truth of Trump collusion hoax but kept silent

Durham report lifts the veil on the cesspool of corruption that has infected FBI for far too long

OPINION by Gregg Jarrett | Fox News

A silence kept in order to hide the truth is a lie.

By that maxim, there are plenty of liars among prominent Democrats who knew that the damning Trump-Russia collusion narrative was all a hoax. But they chose to remain mum, preferring instead to watch contentedly as an American president was vilified nonstop by a media-driven orgy of lies. It consumed the nation for years and inflicted untold harm. None of them had the decency to volunteer the truth.

This is one of the key findings in the 306-page Durham report that the special counsel filled to the brim with documented acts of deviousness, dishonesty and malice by high officials in government whom we are supposed to trust but should not.

In July 2016, CIA Director John Brennan rushed to the White House to brief then-President Barack Obama and Joe Biden, our current president, about alarming new evidence uncovered by American intelligence. The agency had obtained reliable information that "Hillary Clinton had approved a campaign plan to stir up a scandal against Donald Trump by tying him to Putin and the Russians" (page 81 of the report).

It was an outrageous and wholly invented accusation unsupported by anything except Hillary's craven imagination. Her shrewd goal was to frame her opponent for unidentified crimes that he never committed and, thereby, damage or sink his candidacy.

As Durham noted, the despicable smear had the dual benefit of distracting from her own nagging email scandal that was dragging down her poll numbers. Given its potency, the Clinton canard ranks as the dirtiest trick ever perpetrated in American politics.

Obama and Biden knew all about Hillary's treachery and so did others in their orbit who were secretly briefed, including Attorney General Loretta Lynch, Director of National Intelligence James Clapper and FBI Director James Comey. This is corroborated by Brennan's handwritten notes. For the next three years all of them remained silent about the CIA's findings.

Collectively, they concealed the truth of Trump's innocence as he was hounded by the constant condemnation of conspiring with Moscow, even though he did no such thing. On almost a daily basis, the media pronounced him guilty in the court of public opinion. Brennan and Clapper took to the airwaves and dishonestly denounced Trump as a Russian asset, hiding what they knew.

At the outset of the hoax, Hillary's devoted coterie of disciples plotted to spread the lie. They secretly paid a sleazy ex-foreign spy, Christopher Steele, to obtain Russian disinformation about Trump and compose a phony "dossier." They leaked it to journalists who promptly insisted that it was true without ever bothering to verify or corroborate its contents. News organizations even published the full collection of lies that was covertly bankrolled by Clinton's campaign and the Democratic National Committee.

The shameless media was emboldened by the unscrupulous maneuvers of Comey and his confederates. Deputy Director Andrew McCabe and senior counterintelligence agent Peter Strzok launched a dogged investigation of Trump. It commenced literally days after the FBI director learned of Hillary's fraudulent machinations.

The bureau had no basis whatsoever to open the probe because agents lacked "any actual evidence of collusion" and traduced their own strict guidelines, according to Durham. Those in charge broke every rule in the book. In a brazen reversal of standards, they willingly exploited the Clinton lie as a pretext to persecute Trump with salacious and specious slurs. Their lawless actions were inflamed by their "prejudice against him" and their "pronounced hostile feelings," the report explained.

The vainglorious James Comey, who refused to cooperate with the Durham investigation, now publicly claims to be suffering near total amnesia. It is a curious affliction since the special counsel's report reveals that he demanded and received "daily briefings." Whenever agents working the case had the temerity to complain that there was no real evidence implicating Trump in any wrongdoing, Comey stuck wads of cotton in his ears. He pushed a relentless witch hunt in a maniacal quest to destroy the man he loathed so obsessively.

The same FBI bias that worked against Trump worked in favor of Clinton. Comey commandeered authority he did not have to absolve her of the crimes she clearly committed in mishandling classified emails and destroying evidence under subpoena. He refused to pursue investigations of Hillary despite compelling evidence that she misused her charitable foundation for self-enrichment in ways eerily similar to the notorious Biden family influence peddling schemes.

FBI finds 200 sex trafficking victims, 59 missing children in two-week sweep
 The nationwide operation also identified or arrested 126 suspects of child sexual exploitation and human trafficking and 68 suspected traffickers.

The FBI found 200 sex trafficking victims and more than 125 suspects during a two-week child exploitation operation in July, federal officials said Tuesday.

During "Operation Cross County," the FBI located 59 victims of child sex trafficking and child sexual exploitation and 59 missing children.

The FBI teamed with state and local agencies to identify or arrest 126 suspects of child sexual exploitation and human trafficking and 68 suspected traffickers.

"Sex traffickers exploit and endanger some of the most vulnerable members of our society and cause their victims unimaginable harm," Attorney General Merrick B. Garland said in a statement.

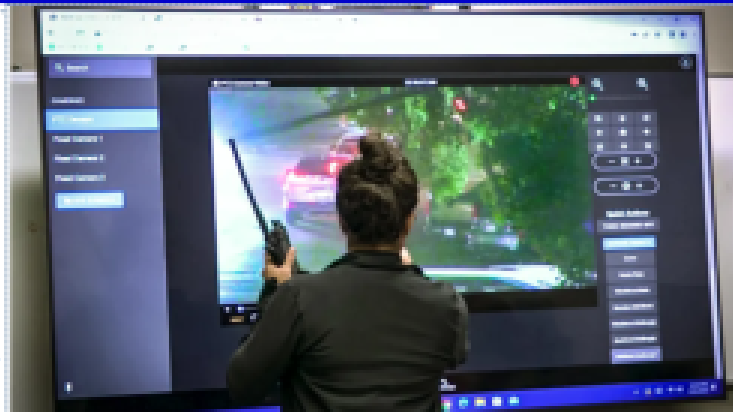

"This operation, which located 59 actively missing children, builds on the tremendous work the FBI has undertaken over many years to rescue minor victims and arrest those responsible for these unspeakable crimes.

The FBI-led initiative in partnership with the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC) "focused on identifying and locating victims of sex trafficking and investigating and arresting individuals and criminal enterprises involved in both child sex and human trafficking," federal officials said.

"Behind every statistic, there is a person with dreams, aspirations, and the right to live a life free from child sex trafficking and exploitation," NCMEC President and CEO Michelle DeLaune said in a statement.

Where is the HOPE

By Greig Veeder | 9/1/23

In my opening piece on "Where's The Hope," I left off on this challenge saying that Hope is both an individual challenge and an interpersonal responsibility. Add to that: Hope is something that can be lost. Then it takes something (plus effort) to regain hope. Then, it has to be sustained because Hope can be lost again.

So let me jump right into my fiend Edgar Johannsen's story. It is an example of how we have to work to find hope in our lives and for our nation's political future.

At 60, Edgar has experienced a very interesting life. As with anyone who grew up in the 60s and 70s life has thrown a plethora of different experiences his way that has forged Edgar into someone who is not only colorful, but also insightful. Edgar grew up in Baltimore MD which is a part of his story that has, in part, set his edgy east coast direct opinionated personality. His early life was both difficult as well as amazing, and this dichotomy has driven him to have a dynamic nontraditional path to where he is in life.

Edgar had several life changing events in the late 80s early 90s that led to moving to Colorado. Originally landing in Steamboat Springs five years later he found his way to Denver where he completed his undergraduate degree and moved from pedi-cab driver and ski boot fitter to an almost 25-year career in aerospace, state and federal relations, business development and space science. Additionally, one of the two life changing events was finding aikido (a Japanese martial art) which has led to him training with some of the finest aikido practitioners and teachers around the world. Edgar currently is the Chief Instructor and has been running Denver Aikikai on South Broadway (an aikido dojo) for almost 20 years.

The other major life changing event that happened in the late 80s was Edgar finding freedom from the use of alcohol. This pivotal event moved Edgar's future from that of a victim to someone actively choses a life of personal responsibility. To this day, the influence of 'folks of character' has been a cornerstone of how Edgar engages with the world in all his endeavors.

Why do I tell you all these details of this man? Well, he and I have become good friends and have very in-depth discus-

"Schools must equip children to have sexual partners"

"Little children are sexual beings who must have sexual partners and begin with sex as soon as possible. For this reason, kindergartens and elementary schools must teach children to develop lust and sexual desire, learn masturbation, build same-sex relationships, use online pornography, and learn different sexual techniques such as oral sex."

The above is a paraphrased summary of the official guidelines issued by the World Health Organization and the United Nations to educational authorities worldwide. Meanwhile, judicial organizations are issuing statements that sex between little children and adults should be legalized, while media outlets and political parties are calling for the acceptance of pedophilia as a "normal sexual orientation".

Democratic Mayor and Buttigieg Protege Pleads Guilty for Possession and Distribution of Child Pornography

Former Democrat Mayor Facing Decades in Prison After Pleading Guilty to 140 Counts of Child Porn. 'This is a horrific case.'

By Nicholas Dolinger | 8/5/2023

Patrick Wojahn, the erstwhile Democratic mayor of College Park, Maryland, has pled guilty to his involvement in a child pornography case.

Wojahn, 47, confessed to over a hundred charges related to the possession and distribution of child sexual abuse material. His tenure as mayor, which began in 2015, ended abruptly with his resignation preceding his arrest in March. The case against Wojahn originated from an anonymous tip received in February. The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children was alerted about a suspicious social media account, which was later linked to Wojahn. The Prince George's County State's Attorney's Office has revealed that Wojahn's plea deal stipulates a 30-year prison sentence; his sentencing is scheduled for November.

Wojahn's legal representative, as listed in online court records, did not respond immediately to requests for comment. In his resignation letter, Wojahn expressed his intention to "deal with my own mental health."

The former mayor's connections extend to the Biden administration. In a 2019 interview, Wojahn referred to then-South Bend, Indiana, mayor Pete Buttigieg as his "buddy" and acknowledged Buttigieg's "mentorship" as instrumental in his career advancement. Buttigieg currently serves as President Joe Biden's transportation secretary.

Aisha Braveboy, Prince George's County state's attorney, expressed dismay at the case and satisfaction with Wojahn's guilty plea in an official statement.

"This is a horrific case," Braveboy said. "I am truly pleased that Mr. Wojahn has [pleaded] guilty and accepted responsibility for his actions and these horrendous crimes."

"As a former elected official, the College Park community put its faith and support in him to serve each resident and their best interests. Instead, he let them down in a most disgraceful way," Braveboy continued.

"Our children are both precious and vulnerable, deserving of the utmost protection. The tragedy of them being preyed upon in cases like this cannot be understated."

Wojahn's case is not an isolated incident within the Democratic Party. Former Democratic New Hampshire state representative Stacie Laughton, who identifies as transgender, was arrested in June on child pornography charges. This marked at least the fourth arrest for Laughton, who had previously been jailed in 2022 for stalking a woman. This arrest led to Laughton's resignation from the legislature.

Jerry Harris, a former Biden campaign surrogate, was sentenced to 12 years in prison last year for sexually assaulting a minor and soliciting sexual images from a child. The Demand Project, a child-abuse prevention group, reports a 2,500 percent increase in arrests related to child pornography over the past decade.

Tens of millions of Russian dollars landed in Clinton's nonprofit, which she treated as her personal piggy bank. With Comey at the helm, four ongoing probes into likely "criminal activity" magically vanished. Trump didn't collude with Russia, but it appears his opponent did – and got away with it.

Durham minced no words in describing the FBI's double standard and the "dual system of justice" it produced. Hillary received the courtesy of a defensive briefing about corrupt foreign actors but Trump did not. The FBI rejected a surveillance warrant on Clinton from the secret FISA court while seeking four successive spy warrants involving Trump's campaign. To secure the intrusions, exculpatory evidence was withheld and supporting documents altered.

Comey deceived the judges by vouching for the credibility of the bogus dossier that his agency had already debunked. He represented that Steele was a reliable source when he knew that the shady spook was not. Indeed, Steele was fired by the FBI as a paid confidential informant because he repeatedly lied. This vital fact was deliberately concealed from the court.

The irony embedded in the great collusion con is fully exposed in the Durham report. Instead of conspiring with Putin in the bowels of the Kremlin, Trump became the victim of Clinton-induced Russian disinformation that helped fuel the fabricated dossier. Hillary's cronies supplied much of the deceit in Steele's work of fiction, but so did Moscow.

From the moment he took the oath of office, the Republican president was saddled with multiple investigations by the FBI, Congress and a special counsel. Demands for his indictment and impeachment reverberated through the halls of Capitol Hill, in newsrooms across America, on television airwaves, and on social media websites everywhere. All the while, those who knew the truth remained conspicuously quiet.

ii. White House briefing

On August 3, 2016, within days of receiving the Clinton Plan intelligence, Director Brennan met with the President, Vice President and other senior Administration Officials, including but not limited to the Attorney General (who participated remotely) and the FBI Director, in the White House Situation Room to discuss Russian election interference efforts.⁴⁶⁶ According to Brennan's handwritten notes and his recollections from the meeting, he briefed on relevant intelligence known to date on Russian election interference, including the Clinton Plan Intelligence.⁴⁶⁷ Specifically, Director Brennan's declassified handwritten notes reflect that he briefed the meeting's participants regarding the "alleged approval by Hillary Clinton on 26 July of a proposal from one of her [campaign] advisors to vilify Donald Trump by stirring up a scandal claiming interference by the Russian security services."⁴⁶⁸

The special counsel's well-documented report lifts the veil on the cesspool of corruption that has infected the FBI for far too long. Beyond Clinton, there are many villains in this sordid story but none so contemptible as Obama, Biden, Brennan, Clapper and Comey. They knew it was all a cunning lie but kept silent to hide the truth. They watched as a spasm of false allegations tore the nation apart.

Such silence speaks volumes about their absence of character and integrity. They were more than willing to fan the flames of political divisiveness in America. That is not leadership. It is cowardice.

The Australian Federal Police (AFP) has confirm 19 men have been arrested on charges of sharing child abuse material online. At least 13 children were rescued in a joint operation with the FBI, coined "Operation Bakis."

Soothing White Pills

I wasn't gonna post these pics because I'm reaching max capacity for madness; however, it needs known if it's to stop, so today's wildly disturbing pill is the introduction of packers for girls 4-8yrs old.

That's right; Transhausen by Proxy parents can now completely fook the minds of their young daughters by buying them tiny little plastic penii packers to carry around in their underpants.

This has to stop. Little girls have no business being this familiar with a penis, much less a desire to have a faux schnitzel of their very own carved from their forearms or thighs when they're finally teenagers.

incentivized HEALTH CARE MURDER

WikiLEAKS | June 30, 2023

The current situation is this: If you have COVID and you end up in the hospital, you're put on a rigid protocol and there's high mortality in the hospital, AND your family is kept in the dark as to what's happening.

So what's going on here?

1. The CARES act is providing bonus payments to hospital whenever you have a diagnosis of COVID.
2. The Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services is waiving patients rights... this is a deadly combination. -- They (hospitals) get a payment because you offer a free COVID test in the Emergency Room. You get a boost payment if you have a diagnosis of COVID.

3. They get another bonus payment if you are Admitted (to the hospital) with COVID.
4. They get another bonus payment if you're put on Remdesivir.
5. They get another bonus payment if you're put on a mechanical ventilator.
6. They get another 20% bonus if the diagnosis on your death certificate says COVID, even though you may not have died from COVID.
7. There are bonus payments to coroners.

Do you understand the gravity of what's happening right now? The Biden Administration is literally paying hospitals to kill you. THAT'S WHAT'S HAPPENING.

"The Biden Administration is literally paying hospitals to kill you."

This is terrible! We need to stop that. These are real human lives we're talking about! They are PRICELESS!

It's estimated that about $100,000 per patient is what the hospitals get. Think about that.

Academic Who Co-Created Florida's African American History Curriculum Slams Kamala Harris' 'Lies'

by John Symank — July 28, 2023

One of the academics behind Florida's African American history curriculum slammed Vice President Kamala Harris' "lies" about the information in the material, calling her remarks "categorically false."

Last week, Harris traveled to Jacksonville, Florida, where she ignited a false narrative surrounding the new curriculum, claiming that "in the state of Florida, they decided middle school students will be taught that enslaved people benefited from slavery."

Harris found one sentence from the 216-page curriculum, which stated that freed slaves used skills they had learned and developed during slavery to help them-some instances, could be applied for their personal benefit."

By comparison, the College Board includes a similar item in its course framework for AP African American Studies for 2023-2024, which the curriculum identifies as "essential knowledge."

"In addition to agricultural work, enslaved people learned specialized trades and worked as painters, carpenters, tailors, musicians, and healers in the North and South. Once free, African Americans used these skills to provide for themselves and others," the curriculum reads. The College Board's AP college selves later in their lives:

"Instruction includes how slaves developed skills which, in

prep classes are available in thousands of schools across the U.S.

Dr. William Allen, a member of Florida's African American History Standards Workgroup, and the former chairman of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, unloaded on Harris, teachers unions, and others he says are spreading "lies," during an interview with Fox News host Jesse Watters.

During the interview, Watters noted that the "hoax" was thrust into national media only after ABC aired an edited clip of Allen's remarks about the curriculum.

"The only criticism I've encountered so far is a single one that was articulated by the Vice President, and which was an error," Allen said at the time. "As I stated in my response to the Vice President, it was categorically false. It was never said that slavery was beneficial to Africans. What was said, and anyone who reads this will see this with clarity."

However, the following, which came after the above comment, was the only portion aired by ABC. "It is the case that Africans proved resourceful, resilient and adaptive. And were able to develop skills and aptitudes which serve to their benefit, both while enslaved and after enslavement." The aired comments completely disregarded Allen's initial statement.

During the interview with Watters, Allen said, "Permit me not to give you Kamala Harris' motives. They're invisible. I don't know them. We can all have suspicions that there's a dishonest purpose afoot. But what's more important than that dishonest purpose is the truth. And this curriculum is devoted to telling the truth, whereas Kamala Harris has re-tailed a lie. Now, it may only have been a falsehood the first time she stated it, but when you repeat a falsehood, it becomes a lie."

Allen said that those on the left who are pushing the false claims are doing so "because they have an agenda and they only want slavery to be told from a certain perspective."

"Indeed, it's a wonderful irony when you think about it, that they are accusing the workforce that developed this curriculum of embracing the positive good school of slavery, that 19th century abuse, which I have refuted in my scholarship ... these people are saying this is what's being presented in Florida," he said. "It is an absolute falsehood. If anybody is presenting the positive good school of slavery it's the heirs of people like Calhoun and Taney and Woodrow Wilson, who continue to propagate the false picture that the birth of the nation was nothing but slavery."

Allen highlighted the story of Frederick Douglass, who described in his autobiography how "the mistress of his slave owner began to teach him to read," Allen said. "She pulled back the curtain through which a glimmer of light shone before the master forced her to close it. But that glimmer of light was enough for Frederick Douglass to illumine a bright flame that he exploited to his benefit and his country's benefit thereafter."

"Such examples are numerous, and they are re-tailing the stories of people who suffered the indignity of slavery time and again," he continued. "And quickly permit me to say, what this curriculum is about is having people who lived the experience, who lived the history, tell their stories. And nothing is more important than that. We never, ever erase the stories that the people who lived the stories tell; no one has a right to interpret before first understanding the stories as the people who lived them understood them themselves."

In a subsequent interview with podcast host Megyn Kelly, Allen said that the group who created the curriculum did so in public, and invited others, including teachers unions, to weigh in.

"The African American history workgroup deliberated in public," he said. "The sessions were open to the public, it was widely disseminated. The teachers union was invited to attend, to listen, and to contribute. They remained silent through the entire process, contributed zero, zero until it was all done, and then surfaced like snakes in the grass to take potshots. Now tell me that's not a deliberate design."

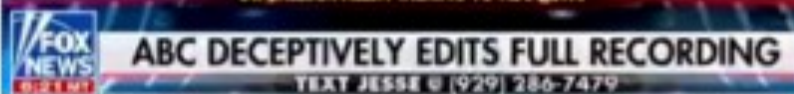

When asked if the teachers unions even showed up to the meetings, Allen respended, "They blew it off. For all practical purposes. One person who had some affiliation attended some of the sessions, but largely the sessions were empty, devoid of any presence from the teachers union, whether online or in person."

It is the case Africans prove their resourceful, resilient, and adaptive and were able to develop skills and aptitudes which served to their benefit, both while enslaved and after enslavement.

Effects of adrenochrome and epinephrine on human arterial endothelial cells in vitro

PMID: 7582857

Abstract

The effects of adrenochrome and epinephrine were investigated in cultured human umbilical arterial endothelial cells. The cells were exposed to either adrenochrome or epinephrine at levels of 50 and 200 microM, respectively, up to 24 hrs. At 3, 5, 7 and 24 hrs of the designed harvesting time, [3H]thymidine incorporation, protein content, [3H]cholesterol uptake, prostacyclin production and lipid peroxidation were measured. We found that adrenochrome at a level of 200 microM inhibited [3H]thymidine incorporation, decreased protein content, stimulated [3H]cholesterol uptake, and decreased prostacyclin production after 3, 5, 24 and 5 hrs of exposure, respectively, compared with control. It took 24 hrs however for epinephrine at a level of 200 microM to inhibit [3H]thymidine incorporation and prostacyclin production. When the concentration was reduced to 50 microM, only adrenochrome inhibited [3H]thymidine incorporation after 24 hrs of treatment. Both adrenochrome and epinephrine had no effect on lipid peroxidation. We suggest that atherogenic changes found in severe hypertension may be due to abnormal high concentration of epinephrine, especially oxidized epinephrine, on endothelial cell functions, such as DNA synthesis, cholesterol uptake and prostacyclin production.

California First-Grade Teacher Charged With Sexually Assaulting Six Girls in the Classroom

Los Angeles County District Attorney George Gascon said, "Our educators are entrusted with creating a safe and nurturing environment where students can learn and grow without the fear of abuse or exploitation. It is our collective responsibility to ensure that schools are places where all students can thrive, free from the threat of sexual violence. I encourage any victim of childhood sexual assault to contact our Bureau of Victim Services to receive trauma-informed care."

A California first-grade teacher has been charged with sexually assaulting six female students, according to authorities.

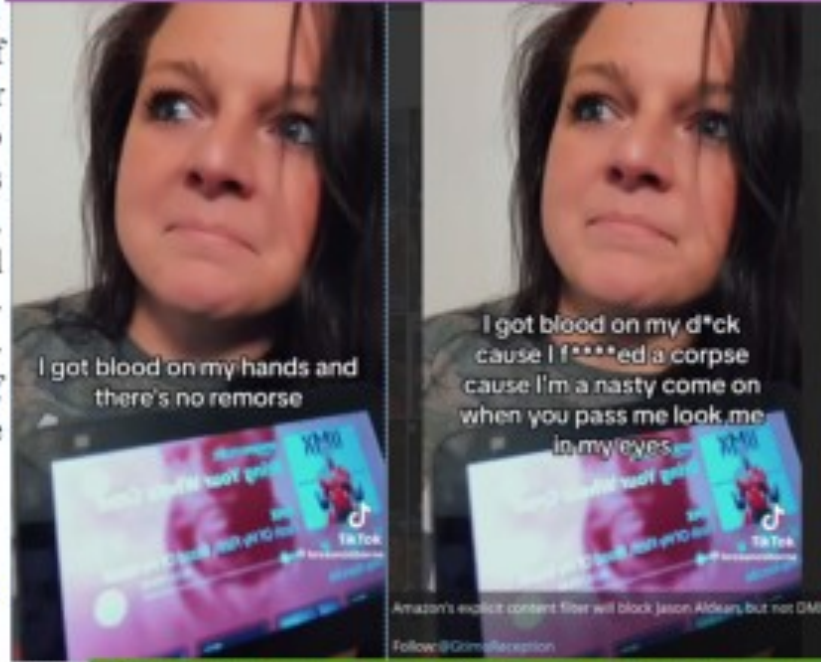

Martin Reyes Jr., 29, was arrested by detectives from the Los Angeles Police Department's Juvenile Division on Monday. Reyes, a teacher at Sunrise Elementary School in East Los Angeles, has been charged with 10 counts of lewd act on a child under the age of 14, according to the Los Angeles district attorney's office. Reyes had his bail set at $1 million and is reportedly still in jail.

The family of a female student reportedly notified law enforcement on May 22 that their daughter had been sexually abused by a teacher at the Sunrise Elementary School in the Boyle Heights neighborhood. Following an investigation, police allegedly identified five more girls with similar allegations of child sex abuse.

A spokesperson for the Los Angeles Unified School District said in a statement, "In late May, the school community shared their concerns about this employee with the school. Upon receiving these concerns, we immediately contacted the Los Angeles Police Department and removed the employee off-campus pending the results of an investigation."

Reyes sexually abused six of his female students during a recess inside the classroom, according to the dis-

Jason Aldean (Try That in a Small Town) vs. DMX (Bring Your Whole Crew). Where is the outrage from the commercial media demons who ignore actual debauchery? We live in a world of evil that is oozing out of the cracks.
